Colorado National Monument: COMPLEMENTARY

Take a guided tour inside one of our premier bus rides. We will pick up at Grand Vista at 10 am and return by 2 pm.

The Colorado National Monument typifies the Colorado Plateau's distinct and dramatic mesa and canyon topography. The "National Monument" designation signifies a natural or cultural feature that is part of the National Park Service of the USA. The plateau that forms the mesa is a high desert landscape at the edge of the Uncompahgre Uplift, some 6,000 feet above sea level and 2,000 feet above the Colorado River. Side canyons into the mesa by its tributaries make it something of a mini Grand Canyon. The scenery is grand. View sweeping vistas, imposing monoliths, wind- and water-carved pillars, spires, and layered cliff walls that bring geological history to life.
